CROWN NAMES NEW COUNTRY MANAGER IN KOREA

Seoul, Korea, August 6th, 2013 - Crown Worldwide Group, the world's largest privately held group of international logistics and related services companies, has promoted the role of Nicolas Perez to Country Manager, Korea. This appointment is effective from July 1, 2013, when Perez will be responsible for strengthening and expanding Crown's service coverage in Korea. The new appointment is in line with the company's strategic direction and plans for growth in the area.

Perez joined Crown as Branch Manager, Hanoi, Vietnam in 2010, and has since improved the efficiency and quality of the overall operations. Achievements have included the training of a new team, implementation of best practices and development of a successful and high performing branch. During his time in Hanoi, the branch has received the Most Improved Branch Award for 2012, a highly-coveted achievement.

As a result of both his customer satisfaction and quality management style, Perez has built a fantastic reputation with both Crown staff and clients.

Nicolas Perez, Country Manager – Crown Korea, commented, "I am very enthusiastic about this opportunity to lead our Crown Korea team. South Korea will be a fantastic experience full of challenges which I am ready to take on, to bring the office to new heights. Korea is a fascinating country, rich in culture and still being one of the fastest-growing developed countries in the APAC Region. I'm confident that Crown Korea is ready to capitalize on the opportunities that lie ahead."

Originally from France and bi-lingual (French-Spanish), Nicolas holds a Masters Degree in International Trade from Osaka Business School, Japan. He has also achieved a Degree in Administration and Languages from the University of Nice, France.
