FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CROWN RECORDS MANAGEMENT APPOINT DESTRUCTION SERVICES BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

London, United Kingdom, August 12, 2013 - Crown Records Management, one of the largest providers of data management and consultancy services has appointed Ann Sellar as Business Development Manager - Destruction Services, for UK and Ireland. Ann will oversee Crown's waste and destruction service offer which includes digital, magnetic and paper data.

"My role is to develop solutions for our client's waste destruction needs. Everything from paper documents, hard drives, right through to company uniforms and name badges should be disposed of safely and securely when it reaches the end of its life," said Ann.

"A corporate memory is precious and company data is valuable. Crown can advise you to make sure that data is destroyed appropriately, helping to avoid fines and damaged reputations. We'll make sure your data management and destruction is compliant and secure in the most cost effective way."

Martin Budd, Director of Business Development, said: "With over eight years experience in the field of data management, Ann is a valuable asset to our team. She'll be responsible for developing and growing our destruction services whilst working with our clients to provide a consultative service to help them to manage the process when their corporate memory is at the end of its life."
